Josephine "Joey" Washington Saunders, the owner of Lord and Saunders Real Estate, Inc., is a Disabled Vietnam War Veteran and one of the closest relatives to our first president, George Washington. Her Northern Virginia Real Estate ancestry is epic. Joey is a true picture of the first family of Northern Virginia and the United States beginning and continuing to reside and flourish here in Northern Virginia as a Virginia business owner. We like to affectionately say come and do business with the first family of Northern Virginia. Joey and I know this area well and our knowledge will help you! Please go to our website: www.lordandsaunders.com to see how Joey is directly related to the man that inherited Mount Vernon, Captain Lawrence Washington, Joey's Grandfather 8 generations removed and George Washington's grandfather also.

The Library of Congress traced George Washington's lineage back to a Roman who lived in the year 78 BC. So when you meet Joey you are looking at antiquity come to life. This is unique to the Washington Family. Amazing isn't it?
